Unilever awarded Cannes Lions Advertiser of the Year

- Keith Weed, Chief Marketing & Communications Officer

We are honoured to be recognised as Advertiser of the Year by Cannes Lions.

We strive for excellence in advertising but to be recognised by the industry will spur us to even greater heights.

It's fantastic recognition, not only for everyone who works in our advertising agency, but for all the people who work in Unilever marketing.

And this will help us strive for even stronger advertising as we go forward.
